

Paediatric Critical Care Medicine Training Program

ACADEMIC CYCLE & APPLICATION PROCESS

The Paediatric Critical Care Medicine Training Program runs during the academic year from July 1– June 30. Periodic accommodations can be made for January start dates.

Number of positions available per year	Approximately 15 funded by SickKids	2-4 funded by Ministry of Health (Canadian Graduates)	2-3 Sponsored positions
Duration of Training Program	International Fellowship 1 year (2nd year negotiable)	Canadian Resident 2 years	International Fellowship 1 year (2nd year negotiable)
Academic Year	July 1 - June 30
Program Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✚ Base specialty training in Paediatrics, Anaesthesia, or Paediatric Surgery</li> <li>✚ Specialty certification is mandatory for acceptance by the University of Toronto and College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario (CPSO)</li> </ul>
Application Timeline	February 1 - May 1st	Applications are accepted for the following July academic year
	May - June	Selection Committee reviews applications and short-list candidates for interview
	July – September	Short-listed candidates are interviewed, final selections are made and offer letters will be sent to successful candidates

For further information please contact:

Fellowship Program Co-ordinator
Department of Critical Care Medicine
SickKids Hospital
Toronto, Ontario, CA
ccm.fellowship@sickkids.ca