

Application Process

The Paediatric Critical Care Training Program runs during the academic year from July to June.

Number of positions available per year	Approximately 15 funded by SickKids	2-4 funded by the Ministry of Health (must be Canadian Graduates)	2-3 self-funded positions
Duration of Training Program	International Fellowship is 1 year (2nd year negotiable)	Canadian Resident is 2 years	International Fellowship is 1 year (2nd year negotiable)
Academic Year	July 1 - June 30
Program Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Base specialty training in Paediatrics, Anaesthesia, or Paediatric Surgery ▪ Specialty certification is mandatory for acceptance by the University of Toronto and CPSO
Application Timeline	Feb 1 - Mar 31	Applications are accepted for the following July academic year
	April 1 - Aug 31	Applications are reviewed (reference checks completed and where applicable, trainees will be contacted for interview)
	Sept 1 - Oct 31	Final selections are made and offer letters will be sent to successful candidates
	Nov 1 - Dec 31	Appointments are finalized with the Postgraduate Medical Education (PGME) office at the University of Toronto

For more information and for an application package, please contact:

Nella Perri
 Supervisor, Administrative Services & Fellowship Program Co-ordinator
 Critical Care Medicine
 The Hospital for Sick Children
 Toronto, ON Canada
 email: nella.perri@sickkids.ca